Program Format

Program Content

Confronted with complex demands and a heavy workload on a daily basis, professionals must be able to grasp complex problems quickly, react rapidly to changing circumstances and communicate effectively. To this end, our Part-Time MBA Program is designed as a general management program and is aimed at those who want to enhance, deepen or develop their knowledge in the fields of business administration and economics, and acquire the skills to perform successfully in a challenging global environment. Moreover, there is a special focus on personal and leadership competencies throughout the program. Thereby, you develop the skills to take over strategic management functions within a business organization.

Core Modules

To convey an integral understanding of the core functions of an organization, the first-year modules cover basic management concepts and theories, as well as an introduction to the concepts and tools of economic analysis.

Concentration Modules

The fundamental strength of this program in General Management means that the first-year theoretical and practical content provides a solid base for the conveyance of in-depth knowledge in the fields of Marketing, Sales, Entrepreneurship & Innovation, Advanced Finance & Accounting as well as Strategy & Organization.

Management Practice Workshops

A variety of engaging Management Practice Workshops supplement the program’s thorough academic curriculum. The workshops focus on current key business practices and are taught by experts and coaches in the respective areas.

International Module

The International Module is designed to foster an understanding of business opportunities and management challenges in different parts of the world. Specialist lectures given by senior faculty members of our renowned partner schools cover sensitive issues that are relevant to the local business environments. Company visits develop a deeper understanding of management in emerging economies.

Final MBA Project

The program concludes with the final MBA Project. This project serves to demonstrate the student’s ability to examine a challenging business issue as part of a company project or an independent research topic by applying academic research methods. Students will have the opportunity to choose between different options for their final project. They can either write their final project in parallel to the concentration courses or start after the end of their on-campus classes.
WHU has a unique network of more than 200 top-quality partner universities worldwide – a network unrivaled by any other German university. We believe that international experience is a crucial element of the integrated management training provided by WHU. By taking a global perspective on management studies, students are able to benefit from a wider range of teaching methods, cultures, and customs.

Personal Leadership Module

In the present dynamic and competitive business environment, managers are expected to provide direction and inspiration within their companies. Today’s managers must play a number of roles in which they are highly visible to their coworkers and to the public at large. In order to equip the students with leadership skills, the Part-Time MBA Program contains a compulsory Personal Leadership Module.

The key elements of the Personal Leadership Module are:
1. “Leading oneself”,
2. “Leading teams”, and
3. “Leading organizations”.

Through interactive lectures such as Executive Leadership, Personal Growth as well as The Birkman Method® personality assessment, 360 multi-rater feedback and one-on-one leadership coaching, students increase their self-awareness, personal accountability and emotional intelligence to effectively lead themselves.

“Leading teams” includes the skill to drive engagement, motivate and develop others. The Organizational Behavior lecture includes the main theoretical frameworks and is put into practice with a professional actor in the communication, stage rules and presentation workshops.

“Leading organizations” expects students to translate organizational strategy and to cultivate innovation. This is transferred and practiced in the General Manager lecture and cumulates in experiential learning formats such as the Future Leaders Fundraising Challenge, the Midterm Strategy Challenge and the Leadership Credo.

BENJAMIN STARKE
MBA 2016, audibene GmbH

“As a former competitive athlete, I have very high expectations of myself and my surroundings. The Part-Time MBA Program at WHU prepares me remarkably well for the high demands of the professional world and provides the tools necessary to further develop my personal and professional profile. I have already been able to apply concepts learned at WHU to impart new directions for my start-up company. Furthermore, I am glad to take many beneficial skills and ideas from the weekend studies to my professional life in Berlin.

Especially valuable for me are the insights into different disciplines and the shared experiences of my fellow students, in addition to the benefits of a large network within the WHU community.”

KARIN BERNLOCHNER
MBA 2014, Deloitte Consulting GmbH

“Combining WHU’s Part-Time MBA Program with my second parental leave has been a great decision, as I filled the ‘career break’ by furthering my education. While taking care of the kids during the day, I could use the evenings to study. Although I had to fly in from Munich for the weekends, it was never a problem to attend classes: my husband took care of the kids and WHU was very supportive regarding unforeseen organizational issues.

Regarding my career, the MBA did not only push it forward by offering me a second degree, but also enabled me to gain in-depth knowledge which I could immediately apply at work. Additionally, I built a strong network within the WHU community and gained friends for life.”

ANTONIO SUELS
MBA 2015, CMBA Airbus

“WHU’s Part-Time MBA Program offers the possibility, not only, to encounter new areas of expertise, but to do so in a very flexible and rewarding way – namely during weekends. In addition to the standard MBA lectures, WHU is leading the way by offering great personal and leadership development modules.

The greatest value of the MBA is the people one studies with. WHU certainly selects great candidates.”

ANJA BISCHOFF
MBA 2013, Commerzbank AG/parental leave

“Motherhood and a Master’s degree at the same time? The structure of the Part-Time MBA Program at WHU enabled me to balance both child care and career development.

Using my parental leave to earn a top-notch MBA allowed me to re-enter the business world even at a higher level. The most important things WHU offers besides an excellent education are great people and a great network, which will accompany me far beyond the university.”

CHRISTIAN UNDERWOOD
MBA 2012, SIGES COMMUNICATION AG

“Those who wish to be self-employed have a thousand questions. WHU helped me to ask the right questions – and find the right answers. Entrepreneurship is a top priority here. And the exchange of ideas and experience with other founders is truly stimulating.

The Part-Time MBA Program gave me the tools and the self-confidence to make my dream of my own company come true – I would definitely do it all over again.”

ANDRES BULTO
MBA 2013, Henkel AG & Co. KGaA

“After 5 years of work experience, it was a good time to reflect, look back, and try to connect the dots that made me get to where I was and most importantly trace the draft for the future. As a chemist by training, and having worked 5 years in marketing, I was looking forward to a more solid business knowledge foundation.

The program has brought me to an exciting new position with global responsibility in a completely new market thanks to the knowledge and perspective that I acquired. But most importantly, it gave me a very valuable personal dimension, guiding and forcing me to take time to think about myself, my values and my passions.”

CLAUDIUS SENST
MBA 2013, Axel Springer AG

“During the week I was usually traveling for business. In addition, I wanted to use the weekends to obtain another important qualification. The Part-Time MBA Program in Düsseldorf helped me to do so – with a course of study that matches any full-time program.

I gained insights in many areas and developed tools I could directly apply to my job. I enjoyed the discussions with professors who are familiar with practical operations and are used to working with managers. And I know that the alumni network connects me with intelligent people all over the world. Those are the features that help me to achieve my personal goals.”
